Family file

June 3, 1926.

Dr. I. C. Evans,
Broad St.,
Columbus, Ga.

Dear Sir:

I enjoyed very much the little brief conversation with you last Tuesday and regretted that I could not stay longer to have more of a general talk after you had finished serving your patients.

I enclose you a copy of the Collier genealogy up to the date shown. I have the other data almost complete up to the present date but have not had time to compile it.

It will be necessary for me to see Charles Hicks Collier of Richmond, Va., William Vines Collier of Washington, D. C., and Robert Collier of 5th Ave., New York before completing the genealogy to date.

My father's name was Isaac Cuthbert. He died in 1908. He was one of middle Georgia's largest planters and quite successful. He was named for Isaac Cuthbert, his uncle, who died at Macon, Ga., and is buried on the Hardeman lot in Rosehill Cemetary near the entrance gate.

I am the owner of the old Robert Collier bible with their births, marriages, and death dates all written in his own hand writing.

Trusting to have the pleasure of seeing you again at some time, and with sincere regards, I beg to remain

Yours most cordially,

J. C. Collier.